The Scandalous Whipping of the Loung Lady at Cambridge, The Bo ten Herall gives the particulars of the whipping of Miss Josephine Foster by the principal and assistant tenches of the Abston school, at Cambridge. From the statement of the young lady, it appears that one week ago last Thursday, in the forenoon, while she was engaged in writing. Mr Roberts, the principal of the school, spoke to her about sitting up straight, and she replied that she would sit up straight. He then told her not to write any more until his orders were given to straight. He then fold her not to write any more until his orders were given to to do so; and she was soon ordered to go lewn to the foot of the class, and to stand there until she get ready to come to him. In the afternoon, she was called up by one of the assistant teachers. Miss Hodges, of the assistant teachers, Miss Hodges, who asked her about whispering with unother scholar, as Miss Gray, another teacher, said she saw her whisper. She was sent into the recitation-room, where Miss Hodge took aratum and said, "I am going to whip you." She was then sent into the hops drawing from, where the two teachers ngain cause in, and were alout to whip her with the ratten, but she refused to hold out her right hand.

CISCINAL OHI) BY AL LOURING IN THE PARTY OF THE PARTY OF

MONDAY, JULY 9, 1566.

We see it charged that there is combination in Kentucky between the Union conservatives and the radicals. There is no combination of the kind. No body has been authorized to get up or tr to get up a combination. The late radica candidate for the Clerkship of the Cou of Appeals, personally an excellent man withdrew from the canvass, as we are it formed, upon the condition, put forwar no doubt to save his pride, that his Unio competitor should withdraw too. Bot withdrew General Hobson is the only Union capdidate, and of course it is to be presumed th t all true Union men, h w ever classed politically hitberto or now will vote for him. They will vote for him upon the distinct issue between anti-rebellion and pro-rebellion. There is n league or compact or sgreement between nion conservatives and radicals. The Union conservatives neither yield nor modify nor compremise any principle opinion set forth by their Thirtieth May Convertion, and the friends o the late radical candidate are no required to yield, or to modify, or compromise any doctrine they have pr Let the whole of the friends of t I'nion hold their own principles and do tripes. Bu Union conservatives and Union rad als. supporters of the Civil Rights bill and opposers of it, those wh approve the new constitutional amend ment and those who condemn it. those who are for negro suffrage and those who ar against it can, where none of these issue are in the slightest degree involved, as where the the, the sole, the entire que tion i Un n or pro-re l'on, give the support to the Uni n candidate; and the will, if they are not witless, had strug, and impracticable. The friend the rebellion in the Stat are seeking to set the seal of public de gradation upon al Union men and al on men may very naturally jet t being thue scaled and choose to put in sharp protest at the plas. The pro-rebe are resolved to esta lish their own ablute domination in Kentucky and to make the term "Union man a term of repriach Their so tled purpose is to compel Un on men to feel as if they had bran ls up on their brows arms, breasts, and shoulders and yet they complain and carse and swear and rant at the thought that all. whom they would thus treat, will vote Undoubted. against the treatment. Union conservatives and radicals will be just as much Uni n conservatives and radicals after Gen. Holes n's electio as they are now. The election will decide nothing between them. The Coprier and other Puval leaders cry out that those who go for General Hobson have "uo platform." Platform enough. Platform in abundance. The Union against rebellion and the sp.rit of rebellion, considering that the issue i made squarely and soundly on the Durall side, is of itself a platform upon which the poblest of the nation might be proud to stand. We would no more have true Union men divided by political questions upon had the Union armies divided by such questions upon the battle-fields of the war Having all fought to conquer the live rebellien, we guess that they can all fight or rather rete to keet the dead rebellion from a red feet and fists. The secess n of the S ct , Kent cky incl ded, the Courier considered as sufficient platform in 1- .I

If people si sod on that, the Co rier cared n t what else they stood on The Corrier says, that, n t long ago, although we ! ght against both radicalism and pro-rebelli n, we cliefy attacked the radicals Yes, we did. But we were thinking very little about the Kentucky radicals. W. knew that there were no ca sugh of them to be dangerous. We had Northern, Middle, Western, and North-Western States. We thought; as we sil do, that their policy was all the time growing worse and werse, threatening the direct evils to the republic, and we tried to do onr duty is pointing out the tendencies of their doc tr nes and their deeds. We directed ou efforts where we hoped they might lo good. The pro-rebel strength did not seem at that time to be at all formidable anywhere. So, while steadily denoun in the pro-robel spirit wherever it mig texist, we bad less to say of it than of the abolition spirit. But a pro-rebel party has since organized in lientneky and asanmed consid rable proportions. To some extent it port ads p blic peril. A State election is at hand. The pro-rebels are swarming like a thousand swarms of horners. They are de rmi ed to carry Kentucky if earth a bell or 1 h give them sin n h. T y mean as we have sa d. t saldue a 11miliate and s i gat Un'n m They intend to grasp all power in the are and wield it removed on y. Thy design that their party a all bear the star - like a Coloss s. and that we porty Union men shall "wak it'r its hoge I gs. Their of his U ioni m. They would ren every Kentu ky Union s ldier a pariah n the State which he fought succes fully t defend. Secession and rebellion are to lratified, end reed exalted, made hon ra ble, and opposition to them cond-mned marked as vile, infamous and outrageous And the issue is to be tried in Augus carly in August Surely then it behooves ns and every other patrict to give for the present all possible attention to Kentucky

The Courier asserts that the Union cou zervatives have succumbed to the radicals in this State. If it suited the Courier s purpose better to say the direct contrary. the Courier would say the direct contrary It has a cloven tongue-one of the cleft halves for caying one thing and the other the opposite—the two wagging with equal facility. It kn ws a good deal better than to say what it does say with one lalf of its tongue. It pretends to think Gen-Hobson a radical. Nobody thinks him s radical. He is as sound in peace as he was in war. He went earnes'ly for General McClellan for the Pre i dency against the radical candidate Nothing has even been hinted against his thorough conservation except that a year voted for a man, who afterwards voted for the Constitutional Amendment Ing lost by condescension

He is as liberal-minded as he is brave; he appreciates and loves all who are sineuraly devoted to the Union at there is not one recognized principle Conservatism that he diesn't hold and shold. The retels and pro-rebels think call every man a radical who fough eir rebellion, and, the harder and mor ccessfully he fought it the worse radica ley think or call h'm' and in this view annot be deemed strange that they think o call Gen. Now that the race for the Clerkship of he Court of Appeals has assumed a political shape, and has narrowed itself down to a contest between Union men and rebels, we should look about us ascertain our strength, and use it with vig. r. To elect our candidate we must work, we must strike heavy llows, and strike then rapidly. There is no time to be lost; each man has a duty to perform, and he should ee up and doing Our friends must see to t that every Union vote in the severa precents throughout the State shall be polled. We have before glanced at the speech of ames B. Beck, the former law partner o John C. Breckinridge, delivered at Lexington, in favor of Duvall, on the 11th of May last. As more conclusively showing the rebel animus of the speech and the gentleman's ideas of the Union soldiers and conservative men of our State who have battled so manfully to preserve th life of the nation and the integrity of our beloved old Commonwealth, we will give two extracts of the speech as published at the time Speaking of loyalty, and that sort of loya ty that was shown to promote the Union cause, Mr. Book says that it " a word unknown in a republic." Because the rebel-secession - pullification - Dava! party of the State have neither loyal pro ssions nor antecedents, he asserts the uch a word is unknown in a repullic. The National Union Conven-

The old Richmond Enquirer doesn't seem to like the call for a National Union Convention. We presume the old Seces sionists won't like it. It is to be a Union Convention. The Enquirer snaps out in

We do not like the terms in which even the Noticeal Intell general is recommending the convention to the South. It is calling for the "Union men" to come—a term which indeed fairly includes us all, but which is defused by a technical application, and refers only to that shadowy muttinde of whom Northern men are still resolved to dream, who were hostile to the Confederacy. If they only are wanted, the South has no interest in the convention.

None Lut Union men have any busines n that ecuvention, or in fact in any loyal convention. Those who hold on to Seces sion should stand aloof from all Union movements. Secession and Unionism ar al solutely incompatible. Secessionist may become Union men, but they cannot e so long as they adhere to S cession.

The Petersburg, Va., Express takes the opposite view of this call for a National nich Convention. It says:

As a wise policy therefore, indicates as clearly the necessity of a reunion at the earliest period, we cannot bet heal the proposition for the Philadelphia Convention with favor, and express the hope that the South will be fully represented the rein. The people are moving for the appoint ment of delegates. At a meeting which took place in Albemarle county resolutions were a lopted declaring in favor of gates for the State at large. The foliov ing resolution was adopted.

Hen. Wm. C. Rives as one of the del-

Resolved, That in view of the shortness of the time intervening between the present time and the meeting of the Convention, it would be impracticable to held district conventions in the several Congressional Pistricts of the State at large, this meeting doth respectfully recommend that the Executive Committee of the late Whig and Demogratic parties of Virginia, appeinted in 1840, assemble in joint convention in the city of Richmond on the deast four delegates from the State of large and two from each Congressional District, to represent the State of Virginia in the Convention at Philadelphia. ing resolution was adopted:

The Union radicals are quite rad al. but not half radical enough to stand the radicalism of the rebel radicals. We den't know of one among the whole of the ormer, who, in our opinion, would have een guilty of such indicalesin as was racticed by that score or two of reb I rad eals in Southern Kennicky, the Concie neludid, who made a pretended reise givernment for Kentucky (they might as eli have made or e for the whole conti nent) and appointed delegates to the reb ingress to represent all the districts of the State, some of the delegat spirious ig to represent districts that never hear wir names. We can really imagine how thing cent on in the little self-constituted gar t Russellville. 'Mr. Speaker, I should he to repr sent a Kentucky District a Bichmond." "Well, sir, what District would you like"? "I should like the Fenrth." "All you who are for the gen theman's representing the Fourth Distrin the Confederate Congress, signify it 1 saying Aye. "Ayel ayel aye" 1 "The gentleman is cleated to represent the Fourth Kentucky District in the Confed erate Congress. His credentials will b made out." "And please, Mr Speaker, should like to represent a District. "What District will you take"? "I be ieve, sir. Ill take the Third. A roice of interruption-'l object. Mr Speaker. the gentleman's taking the Third: I hav allotted that to myself. "Well, I'll pu the question between the gentlemen this august assembly. All you, &c., &c.

Dorbtless Sumner and Stevens and Gar rison and Woudell Phillips and other Northern radicals might, if they would calism, but doubtless Sumper and Stev and Garrison and Wendell Phillips an other Northern Radicals never dil. Why Northern Radicalism, compared with robe Radicalism, is lefty Conservatism

The Northern radicals are ha enough in their radicalism, but not half so ormer pay some respect to the Constitu tion; they disregard or propose to repeadicals, with a radicalism that leaves a other radicalism behind it gaping with vonder, has gone, not for destroying on or another part of the Constitution ut for annihilating the Constitution itsel he whole of it, by fire and sword.

They to talk about radicalism, wh fought against the Constitution and the country! They to sueer at radicalism who had no more respect for the Constitution than for so much lampblack and pa per! They to prate of radicalism, who undertook to tear the Constitution into fragments no bigger than finger-nails They to affect a scorn of radicalism, who defiance of the Constitution of the ountry, the Constitution of Kentucky and all constitutions and all laws and a be principles of government recognize anywhere, u ade use of a little, pitiful, self created game of politicians, shut up in a sn all room at Russellville, to inflict a b gr. Governor upon our State without for consent, and to say, in the absence ill voting, that she should 1 represente n the re el Congress and that she should designate, the while preceding I in atterly unknown to the voter of the s eral Congressional districts thus to b erresented at Richmond'

The radicalism of the a ferociers de near was of rall all sain a nazes the present neur vis to he and is a stimulate he come his-rical, da k Cal's laurels have tallen r m hi dow.

The Radical papers in the inter s Davall, headed by the Courier, presend think Gen. Hobson a Radical They rant to make people believe that he is as Radical as they are, or as Radical as Du-vall as Probably they II declare Defore he canvass is over that he is a Dismionist, and fought for Morgan instead of against him! These Radical papers have an exalted idea of the intelligence of the people, truly. Their cerentery is murvel ous, but the people understand them.

Berli seems that some one connected with our paper stated in its columns, couple of years ago or so, that Judge Duvall did not see Gen. Bragg during his stay in Kentucky. Of course the paragraph was published upon misinformettion, as hundreds of paragraphs in all pa pers are. The Courier knows that Judge Duvall did see Gen. Bragg, and went of with him. It probably will not deny its mowledge that he did so.

Yet, in reply to a recent statement of what Judge Davall did while Braze was in Kentucky, the Courier and Youman have ited that old paragraph from the Journal with the evident intention of making the public believe that Judge Duvall did not see Gen. Bragg They want to make their readers believe what they themselves know is not so. They design to deceive, mis lead, cheat, dupe, trick, gull, hunding all who trust them. Such offenses against iewspay r morals are not to be covered by a jibe or a jeer or any number of jiber and jers. They may not be very great matters, but they are very indicative and significant ones.

The Conrier quotes the Cin innati rquirer an able paper managed in the interests of secession, as saying: "The lection of Duva'l would be a rebake and condimention dating back over the ast. There is not even a gossamer veil ver the meaning and int at of this. Duall's election could be "n rebuke and a over the past," except the Union causwhich Davall and his friends oppose so arnestly. It would certainly be a rebuke and a condemnation of that sacred cause and its champion so far as the voice of Kentucky, uttered under the circum stances, could rebuke and condem:

He the insjerity of the people of this State wish to see the maintenance of the Union and the brave champions who maintained it rebuked and condemned? If they do. the Cine huati Enquirer and ate to them the way in which they should ry to de i

The most of the Crimin Times are the course of and are, therefore, not urbitely to be confounded with one marginer. The most westerly of the three is that which flows past this town. It roses in Bohemia, passes by Zitten, forming ner that town the defile by which Napoléon in 18.3 penetrated into Bohemia flows by Chritz, Gritz Prielus, and Muskau, communicates with the spree by the Cottles Canal and finally falls into the Oder. The next river of this name toward the cast is an efficient of the National, itself an affluent of the Oder. This Neisse is distinguished as the Wunde, or raging Noisse. It rises near Holenfrie berg a braid of the victory gand in 17.5 by Prefer the Creat over the Autrians, passes by Jauer, and joins the Katalachal seven mer above Legitz It was between Jauer and the concept of this two streams that the attle of Katzlach was log by Mardounld in 1813. The Neisse river, which rus past the fortress of Neisse, the present headquarters of the Crown Prince, rises in the montain south of Giatz, passes by that fortress, and a Neisse, and into the Orean passes. Crown Prince, rises in the mointaine south of Citatz, pass a by that forfress, and y Nesse, and joins the O er about twelve miles below Brieg. It is to this river that the principal defiles lealing through the Riesen George unto Cortral Siles, a are due.
